GERMANY MAKES FIRST OFFER OF PEACE

Offer Includes Adoption Of Hughes International Commission Plan Suggested Several Months Ago

BERLIN, May 2.—Germany made the first actual offer for a solution of the Ruhr difficulties in a note to be dispatched to the allies today. Under the proposal announced officially here, Germany would pay the basic sum of thirty billion gold marks as reparations due the allies under the treaty of Versailles. If France accepts, Germany would expect the evacuation of the Ruhr valley and a resumption of the previous system of payments.

The German note, a copy of which will also be dispatched to Washington, agrees if this proves unacceptable, an international commission, such as was suggested by Secretary Hughes several months ago, could be empowered to determine how much Germany is capable of paying.

New Pierian Memb's Elected At Austin

AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—Announcement has just been made of the election of three new members by the Pierian Literary Society for girls at the University of Texas. The society was founded in 1909, and in 1915 it was affiliated with the National Story Tellers' League of America. Since that time the activities of the society have been confind to the study and actual practice of story telling. Membership is based on scolastic averages, as well as interest in the short story. The new members are Dorothy Dunkley of Ennis, Esther Savage and Myrtle Mathis of Fredericksburg.

[illegible]chers At Home For Flock of Nine

Returning home last night from their first road trip of the season the Cushers open their home stand of nine days with the Austin Rangers at McKinney Street stadium this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The road trip just ended has been very successful and the club returns home one half game behind Martin who is now leading the league. Out of the nine games scheduled for the trip the Cushers played seven winning four and losing three while one was a six-ten inning tie with Austin who open here today and one game being rained out at Corsicana. The club returns home in splendid shape and fans are assured of seeing some great games on the coming series. The Cushers defeat of Sherman Tuesday stamp them as one of the best scoring clubs in the circuit and a big crowd is expected to welcome them at the local park this afternoon.

Work of Bandits In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Kan., May 2.—Bandits held up and robbed two Missouri Pacific freight trains of an undetermined amount of valuable merchandise near Wolcott and Turner today, according to reports to police. The same gang was responsible for both hold ups police believe.

One report said at least twenty men in two motor cars took part in the two robberies. Police said they understood at least six box cars were emptied of their contents.

According to A. R. Sutton, in charge of brakemen on one of the freight trains, he encountered the robbers at Wolcott while the train was slowing down to pass through the station.

Twenty men, armed with shotguns and rifles, covered the crew. The bandits then proceeded leisurely with the looting of six box cars, he said. After emptying the contents into motor trucks, they disappeared.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—Three bandits held up Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Adelson in their apartments at a fashionable hotel here today and fled with $10,000 in jewelry. The robbers bound their victims to chairs while they ransacked the rooms. Adelson is a prominent local jeweler.

Alleged Clara, Not Having Hammer Uses Fists in Fight With Reporter To Prevent Being Snapped by Cam'ra

TECUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 2.—The woman held here as Clara Phillips, Los Angeles "hammer slayer" and her woman companion succeeded in besting the photographer and a jail guard in a hand-to-hand movie fight over a camera.

The photographer had gone to jail to take the woman's picture. She steadfastly refused to permit this, but he snapped the shutter anyway, and despite the presence of the guard the woman hurled herself upon him in an effort to destroy the plate.

Her companion, Mrs. R. M. Young, came to her assistance and together they subdued the reported and guard.

The fight for the camera lasted about five minutes, beginning in the bedroom in which the prisoners are confined and ending severals yards down the corridor toward the street entrance.

The woman displayed great pugilistic talents and an actual genius for fighting. They were so determined the reporter badly needed the assistance of the guard.

This was the first incident digressing from the usual sullen reception which the woman believed the slayer of Mrs. Alberta Meadows has given newspapermen who called upon her.

California detectives were expected to arrive tonight or tomorrow morning and until their arrival the chief of police has forbidden the prisoners—Mrs. Jesse Carson, Jesse Carson, and Mrs. R. M. Young—to see any guests.

FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL MEETS IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, May 2—The tenth annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council convenes here today for a three day meeting to discuss plans for taking care of the country's rapidly expanding export trade

The first session of the council will be called to order at 2:30 today by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation. Addresses of welcome by the acting Mayor of New Orleans and Governor John M. Parker will follow, after which reports on European conditions generally will be heard.

Child Believed Tool Of Crooks

HOUSTON, Texas, May 2.—A child trained in the ways of the underworld, is believed by local police to be working as the tool of a gang of crooks here.

Recently a store was robbed. A hole had been cut through the ceiling from the floor above. The hole was too small for even a small man or woman to enter.

A rope had been used to lower someone into the store who in turn tied various articles of merchandise to the rope which was then drawn up and the articles removed. The presence of a number of cigar stubbs indicated that several men had taken a hand in the robbery.

No clues as to the identity of members of the robber band were ever found.

Coeur de Lion Commandery, Knights Templar accepted the petitions of four last night and set next Friday night, May 4th for work in the Red Cross degree, meeting to be called to order at 7:30 and all members and candidates are requested to be on time. Visitors are always welcome.—W. R. Storey, E. C.

There will be a called meeting of Springfield Lodge No. 71, A. F. and A. M. tonight for work in degrees. Visitors are always welcome.—M. B. Webb W. M.

Governor Sends Message Urging Establishment Of Parks And Camping Places

AUSTIN, May 2.—Governor Neff, in a special message to the Legislature, urged the creation of a State parks committee for the purpose of establishing a system of parks and camping places throughout the State.

The chief duty of the committee, to be composed of six members who are to serve without compensation, would be solicitation of land in tracts large or small to be converted into public parks.

The activities of the Senate yesterday, in session for the first full day since Thursday due to the junketing trip through oil fields, included final passage of Senate eleemosynary appropriation bill and House judiciary appropriation bill with provisions of Senate bill substituted in the latter. The Senate also reported favorably the Doyle bill to buy more land for A. & M. College.

The House passed finally House bill making it felony to carry arms while violating liquor laws and House bill appropriating $6,000,000 for support of public scholos for two years. The lower body also reported favorably bill defining insect pests.

The House recommitteed three bills yesterday. They were: Bill levying tax on billboards; making it duty of assessors to discover names of owners of unrendered property and bill taking fees for collecting delinquent taxes out of maximum salary.

The lower house killed Harris bill limiting expenditures for free textbooks. The House also adopted resolution for calling of absentees to attend sessions, and struck out all but enacting clause and emergency clause of Smith delinquent tax bill.

Cotton Merchants Confer In Dallas

DALLAS, Texas, May 2.—Representatives of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics will confer with Dallas cotton merchants, buyers, sellers and others interested in the cotton industry at a meeting here tomorrow, called by George S. Williams, president of the Dallas Cotton Exchange.

The Cotton Standards Act, enacted by the last congress will be the principal matter for discussion, it has been indicated.

This act stipulates that all cotton sold, both foreign and domestic must be sold under description of and equal to American standards as regards grade and staple, and attaches a heavy penalty for cotton sold otherwise. This act has caused persons familiar with the proposed workings of the act a great deal of concern, according to Williams.

AUTO PLUNGES IN RIVER

CHICAGO, May 2.—Three persons were believed to have drowned when an automobile plunged off the Michigan avenue boulevard link bridge into the Chicago River shortly after midnight, according to police reports.

Three men who saw the plunge said they thought three persons were in the car. Immediately afterward a driver's glove and two auto cushions were found floating on the surface.

June 15th Will Be Last Day For Bringing Booze across 3-Mile Line

WASHINGTON, May 2.—June 15 was tentatively decided on as deadline for ships bringing liquor as "sea stores" across the three mile limit into American territorial waters. At a conference today this date was agreed on by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Moses and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair. It was submitted to Secretary Mellon for his O. K. If Mellon approves it regulations will be issued June 1st, effective June 15th.

Non-Stop Transcontinental Flight Starts from Roosevelt Field Today

MITCHELL, N. Y., May 2.—Final preparations for the proposed non-stop transcontinental flight of the monoplane T-2 were completed early today. Lieutenants John A. MacReady and Oakley Kelly left at 5 a. m. for Roosevelt Field, whence they will start at 11 a. m. The weather was ideal.

San Angelo Sheepmen Sell 450,000 Pounds of Wool at 55 Cents Pound

SAN ANGELO, Texas, May 2.—Sutton county sheepman yesterday sold 450,000 pounds of long 12-months wool at 55c per pound, a new high record in Texas this season by 2½ cents. The top price in 1922 was 49⅞ cents per pounds. A large amount of 8-months wool was sold in Crockett county yesterday at 48 cents, three cents higher than the season's previous high mark, according to reports here.

State Trops Called Upon To Rescue Holly Rollers From Mob Of Nearly 1,000 In New Jersey

BOUND BROOK, N. J., May 2.—State troopers early today rescued 100 members of the Holy Rollers from a mob of nearly 1000 which surrounded the order's church here after breaking up a mass meeting. Alleged "klan" activities and remarks by a speaker at the meeting favoring the Ku Klux Klan precipitated the outbreak.

Two Holy Rollers were arrested on assault charges brought by Bound Brook citizens following a free-for-all fight in the church which a crowd surrounded and stoned the building, destroyed automobiles belonging to Holy Rollers imprisoned within, and talked loudly of lynching.

State troops were telephoned for and prevented injury to the two Holy Rollers taken prisoner and eventually succeeded in persuading the crowd to disperse.

A leader of the Holy Rollers who attempted to address the mob from a second story window after outsiders had withdrawn from the church and surrounded it, was struck in the forehead and knocked unconscious.

The crowd, unable to force an entrance into the "Pillar of Fire", went for a score of automobiles parked outside and wrecked these.

As the night lengthened, the throng dwindled until at 3 o'clock in the morning the State troopers, aided by local police, were able to back motor trucks up to the church doors and effect a rescue of the entire Holy Roller contingent, carting them off under armed guard to Zarephath, the order's headquarters.

First Woman Hanged in Canada In Twenty-four Years Dies on Scaffold

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, Alberta, May 2.—The first woman condemned to be hanged in Canada in twenty-four years, prepared herself for death here today.

At 8 o'clock this morning Mrs. Florence Lassandra, of Coleman, Alberta, and Emil Picariello were to be hanged on a double scaffold for the murder last November of Constable Lawson during a fight between alleged rum runners and Canadian officers at Crow's Nest Pass, Alberta.

Mrs. Lassandra, appealing to save her life, repudiated a confession which she said Picariello persuaded her to make on the ground that no woman would be condemned to death. The woman and the man are not related, despite reports to the contrary.

Northwestern University Freshman Was Killed By Hazers, Is The Opinion Chicago Chief Of Police and Physicians

CHICAGO, May 2.—Leighton Mount Northwestern University freshman, was killed during inter-class hazing and the body placed in lime in a Lake Michigan pier, Police Chief Charles W. Leggett of Evanston, and physicians, declared today.

Mount disappeared after a "class fight" among university students in 1921. The skeleton was found by a small boy playing about the pier Monday night.

Doctors George Tyson and Joseph Springer, the latter a coroner's physician, declared examination shows that a chemical was placed over the body before it was hidden, to prevent an early discovery.

All class rivalry contests were banned at the university today as a sweeping probe into your Mount's death got under way. Leggett announced that every student who participated in the sophomore-freshman "rush" of 1921, will be summoned for questioning.

Leggett believes that Mount was accidentally drowned by rival classmen who ducked freshmen in the lake and that his tormentors, fearing the consequences, secreted the body and probably visited the hiding place several times afterward to apply fresh treatments of lime.

Finding of the body created a greater sensation than it would otherwise, because of the fact that stories had been circulated that Mount disappeared on his own account.

Chicago police, aiding in the probe, searched for a nurse girl who told them when Mount disappeared that she had received a letter from the boy telling her "good bye."

A report that rumors were circulated two days before the police discovery of the body ,that "Mount had been found," was also investigated.

An initial score or more of students were quizzed today. Liggett says he especially wants to talk to one young man who claimed to have seen Mount alive some time after the class rush.

Coroner Wolf, Evanston, who started an extended inquest, called upon university officials for a complete list of all freshmen and sophomores in the institution in 1921.

Mrs J. L. Mount, mother of the dead boy, was the tragic figure in the case today. Since the youth's disappearance she has ignored reports that Leighton ran away or took his own life, and spent every cent she could afford for private detectives.

"I have always said I would be happier to know Leighton was dead than to have the suffering over the possibility that he might be out wandering friendless, alone, possibly hurt.

"But now that I know, my sorrow is just beginning. If only the university officials had helped the search when Leighton disappeared, by now I would have the dull sorrow that twenty months of obedience to God's will brings.

"For Leighon I am glad. He is happy. He is well. 'He was prepared morally and mentally to die."

Mrs. Mount was spurred in her search by stories authorities appeared to credit that Mount may have run away from home or committed suicide. As the latter dropped their probe she demanded that the name of her boy be cleared

New Publication Out In Rio Grande Section of Texas

AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—"The Citrus Industry in the Lower Rio Grande Valley," a bulletin prepared by J. M. DelCurto, of the State Department of Agriculture is now ready for distribution, it has been announced.

The bulletin is of an instructive nature and is filled with scenes from the valley section.

The topography; climatological data for the years 1912-22; types of soil and average mechanical analysis of the soils; a chart showing the comparative precipitation and temperatures of Brownsville, Texas, San Diego, California and Miami, Florida,and irrigation facilities are all included in the bulletin.

Classification of fruits and amounts of shipments are also contained in the bulletin.

Buck Wheeler, one of the best right handers in the loop, held the Steers to six hits and two runs, while his fellow Spudders got five two-baggers, a home run and eleven singles, netting twelve tallies, off of Mitchell and Appleton.

AMERICAN LEADING IN GOLF

SANDWICH, England, May 2—Robert A. Gardner, captain of the American Walker Cup team of amateur golfers, led in the first round of the St. George's challenge cup play here today.

Gardner turned in a 75 for the first 18 holes, three above par for the course.

Miss Emmajean Smith has returned from a few doys visit in Sherman.

Two Possible Exceptions To Bone Dry Edict May Be Booze Consigned To Diplomats And Medicinal Purposes

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A declaration for rigid enforcement of the Supreme Court liquor decision in American territorial waters was awaited from the Treasure Department, as Secretary Mellon, Assistant Secretary Moses and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair met to put finishing touches on a program of policy ordered drafted by the Cabinet yesterday.

Such a decision was forecast in a statement by Attorney General Daugherty, who said that within thirty days the Government would be "vigorously enforcing" the laws as construed by the Supreme Court. Every agency at his command, Daugherty said, would be used in enforcing the law without partiality or discrimination.

Two possible exceptions to bone dry enforcement were, however, considered possible. They were:

1. Liquor consigned for Washington diplomats, which the State Department has announced as unaffected by the Supreme Court decision.

2. Stores of medical liquors on foreign ships required by the laws from the country under whose flag a vessel

NORMA TALMADGE PLAYS "WITHIN THE LAW"

Norma Talmadge's screen version of Bayard Vellier's "Within the Law" the most successful play in stage history, is the First National feature production de luxe that begins a 3-day engagement at the National Theater today.

The picture, which was made under the direction of Frank Lloyd, is described as being by far the most dramatic thing of its kind Miss Talmadge has yet done for the screen. Surrounded by a cast of unusual distinction, she portrays the stellar role of Mary Turner, made famous on the stage by Jane Cowl.

This part gives Miss Talmadge an extraordinary chance to demonstrate her exceptional ability as an emotional actress.

The heroine is a shop girl who is sent to prison for a theft she did not commit. In demanding that she get the limit, Edward Gilder, department store owner, explains that he wants to make an example of Mary. On her release, vowing vengeance, she joins a gang of blackmailers on condition that she operate only "within the law" Her specialty is breach of promise suits How she takes advantage of an opportunity that presents itself when she meets Dick Gilder, son of her arch enemy, becomes involved in an extraordinary romance and a police frame-up, squares herself with the world and finally finds true happiness, is unfolded on the screen.

APPALLING DIVORCE EVIL
(Denison Herald)

A recent edition of a big daily carried head lines across the paper stating that there were more divorces granted than marriage licenses issued. This is no new thing. For years a study of the records shows that the number of divorces obtained has been greater than the number of marriages. The fact is an appalling bit of history in the making. It has within its sinister consequences some thing far more appalling than the mere separation of man and wife.

The social and moral disaster is going to leave its baneful tendencies to the next generation. Loose marriage ties cannot fail of the most harmful consequences upon young men and women who have been watching such procedure and actually living in elbow's touch with broken vows. "Vice is a monster of such frightful mien, that, to be hated, needs only to be seen; but seen too oft," is pitied. then embraced. There is a deeper reason for the frequency of divorce than the immediate quarrel that precipitates it. Back of the marriage vow is a flippant estimate of the solemn compact between the man and the woman. The keeping of vows thus estimated would be impossible.

The reckless disregard of marriage vows is due to reckless making of marraige vows. Everywhere young people rush into the matrimonial venture without due consideration of its responsibilities, without serious estimates of what is expected or required of each other. The modern sex craze has lowered the value of marital ties and plundered them of their sanctities. Marriage is often a matter of mere passion instead of a lofty compact between two spiritual beings. Imagined affinities as God-given blessings are mistaken for real mate-making qualifications. Young people become dazed with the glamor of marriage without thought of the inevitable sacrifice of individual freedom necessary in every instance.

Once into the bond, and coming into daily contact with the essential restrictions of the contact, disappointment and then friction follow. Nothing requires a more thoughtful and forward-looking meditation than the contract made at the altar between man and woman. The backward look comes too late. Questions of mutual sacrifice, interchangeable submission to wish and will, blending of natures, congeniality under the stress of home duties, comforting attentions during illness, compatibility of temper and temperament, the complete surrender of all others for the one, the abandonment of many social forms of individual freedom, the solemn binding force of a most sacred contract, similarity of tastes for real, social pleasures, business ideals and joint effort in making a living and enjoying it together, the moral phases of the two-fold copartnership, the ability and necessity to be forbearing, yielding, forgiving and self-effacing—these and numerous other consideration cannot escape the premarriage thought of any young man or woman who expects to make a success of the union. There may be instances where divorce is justified, but this should not become the excuse for looseness in marital relationships. No civilization can survive if the family organization breaks down, and nothing surely can break it down more rapidly or more tragically than ill-advised marriage and its almost certain consequence of divorce.

ANCIENT STONE GEARS DUG UP IN CALIFORNIA

SANTA MONICA, Cal., May 2.—In a recent excavation made near here, workmen found what apparently are ancient stone gears, probably used hundred of years ago by Indians who inhabited this section of the country.

The gears were about two feet apart, and were uncovered fifteen feet below the surface. One was about four inches in diameter and had several teeth neatly cut and smoothed.

Among the theories held is that the wheels were part of a machine invented by the Indians for grinding corn. Another of the gears had eleven teeth. The stone is two inches thick.

The teeth on both gears bore evidence of hard usage, some of them being considerably worn down.

THANKS AMERICAN

MOSCOW.—In a special address President Kalinin expresses his thanks to the American workmen who were former Russian citizens for a gift of one thousand five hundred dollars presented to him by the Russian-American Industrial Corporation for the Famine Children fund. The Commissary of health also expressed his thanks for medicines and nourishing foodstuffs to the value of five thousand dollars sent by the New York Children Relief Committee.

Miss Frances Bass left Tuesday afternoon for Lynchburg, Va., to attend May Day and Commencement exercises of her alma mater, Randolph Macon Woman's College. Miss Bass will probably be away until the middle of June, and enroute home will visit with school friends in Virginia and Tennessee.

The Mexia Salesmanship club held a live meeting at th luncheon hour today, at the Hurdleston Banquet Hall. A good attendance and a splendid program featured the occasion.

The Nowlin Post of the American Legion is planning another athletic event, which promises to be the best yet offered by the organization.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Osawatomie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there chanced to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui." NC-151

PERSONALITY OF OWNERS DRAWS FANS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 2.—Baseball club owners, by tradition and practice, are supposed to be only club owners. It is their function to talk gate receipts all summer and wag their tongues all winetr in political battles designed to keep the game in print.

It is seldom that the personality of a magnate injects itself so into the team that it is an asset and a drawing card. The personality of Charley Comiskey was always an asset for the Chicago White Sox until the "Old Roman" became disgusted with star chamber politics and practically retired.

Star players are the biggest factors, of course, in drawing crowds into the parks. Millions have been packed into stands to see Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, George Sisler, Rogers Hornsby and Christy Mathewson, and the same million would have paid in their money even if it did go into the hands of an intensely unpopular club owner.

Babe Ruth, beyond all doubt, is the biggest asset the New York Yanks possess and, for that matter, he is baseball's greatest drawing card. The ability of the great Swat King to draw in customers on the road has meant almost as much prosperity to the other American League clubs as it has to the Yanks, considering the difference in the size of the parks.

The personality of the Yankee team is not confined, however, to Ruth. The popularity of Colonel T. L. Huston and Jacob Ruppert, the two club owners, has been no small factor in raising the Yanks up to the biggest thing in baseball.

In the comment that was aroused over the dedication of the new Yankee stadium, the finest sport structure in the world, when 74,200 fans saw the game and 15 000 were turned away, it was remarked on all sides:

"Those colonels surely deserve it."

No figures are available, but nothing can be recalled to refute the statement that no such support and commendation have been volunteered by the general run of fans to any other club owners.

In addition to being citizens and sportsmen of the very highest type, the two colonels are big chance takers and if anything appeals to the New Yorker, it is a game gambler who plays big stakes on a tough bet and gets away with it.

Ball and Bat

BY HECK

The present race for the rag in the T. A. loop presents much food for thought among you 33rd degree fans who delve deep into the percentage columns and figure the chances the home team has of getting at least part of the rag if not all of it. Marlin who leads today as the new shift of all clubs takes place cannot hardly better their standing with their coming three games with Sherman. The same dope applies to Sherman who are tied with the Gushers. I figure that the Red Sox will win two of the three games with Marlin which will give McIver's crew a percentage of .643 and Marlin .642. The Gushers should and probably will win two of three from Austin which will give them a tie percentage with Sherman for first place. Then the Gumbo Busters appear upon the scene and by winning three straight from the downtrodden Waco Indians are but one game behind with a percentage of .571 and there is no reason why the Busters should not clean up on Dupuy-Falk-seldom-if-ever-wins, but if they don't then Harvey Grubb and Co. we'll get a new ball club. Waco who now sleeps gently in the cool air of the cellar is due to stay there for some time to come and there is no use in expecteing Dupuy to find a ball club very soon these days. Austin who opens with the Gushers today seem to have just hit their stride and may be bad medicine for us now that they have just mopped up the Gumbo Busters three straight gams and all real games too. However, the Gushers should take two of the three games and thusly be all set to climb back on top before they hit the road again. Marlin however goes right back to picking grapes with Waco and that will force the Gushers to keep in high gear during their series with the Corsicana crowd who follow Austin here next Saturday for three games. The Gushers should take two out of three from Corsicana while Marlin is taking three from Waco which will give the Gushers a 11-6 count for a percentage of .647. Marlin will probably leave Waco with a 12-6 count and a percentage of .684. Now what I have been trying to dope for you is what will be about the relative positions of Marlin and Mexia when the Bathers hit here next Tuesday, May 8-9-10 for three games and then you have it if some club don't cross us up and spoil all this figuring. By taking two from Marlin the Gushers will have a 13-7 count for .650 to the Bathers 11-8 count for .636 when they hit the road again. In summing it all up the Gushers must win six of their coming nine games, Marlin must win five of their nine, six of which are on the road. Sherman has the best part of the schedule at Waco an Austin while the Gushers. Gumbo Busters and Bathers are cutting each others throat and it would not surprise me to see the Red Sox win seven or eight of their next nine games and if they do they will sure be hard babies to catch by June 1. If the does goes as I dope it above I want you to say "Heck, you darn fool, have a cigar." I'll take it. But if this dope goes wrong you can jump on Joe Stubenrauch, Harry Cookston or any of those guys who are always doping things wrong.

SPORTLIGHTS

Hello. Second place, where you been all this time?

Poor old Waco Indians. Nine miles in the cellar and if they go much lower they'll be in the sewer.

Just one half a game from the top, but a hard roe to hoe ahead of ous.

I figure manager Johnson to start Roy Davis against us today and the Gushers should beat him pronto.

The Rangers seem to have a combination outfield-pitching staff with Johnson and Whitworth doing double duty. Can't have much hitting kick with that kind of a combination.

The balance of the Ranger club stacks up along wth the balance of the clubs about the loop.

Thanks, Rangers for trimming the Gumbo. Busters three straight. I'm sure glad that they are easy for some club.

The Gushers gave Sherman an awful trimming when they did get going That 16-0 game Tuesday is one for the record book and will perhaps not be equalled this season—unless the Gushers do it.

We may get Bob Crow flung at us today and if so you will see a ball game. Bob pitched in the West Texas in 1920 and when I was out there and looked good then. He should be hard to beat by now.

I have a huch that Meeks will draw the assignment from Hub today, or it may be Carl Hill. Either will do and win or lose, the game will be pitched according to Hoyle.

When you figger it out there are but 5½ games between Waco's cellar and Marlin's lead, which is close anyway you want to take it.

President Davidson stated in Waco last Sunday that he expected to be here today or Thursday to make his first official visit to Mexia, and I look for him to assign Dock Spencer to umpire the coming series.

I watched Dock in action last Sunday and liked the way he handled the game. One thing sure and that is he is "King" of the whole kaboodle when he is on the field. Dock was good on balls and strikes Sunday and handled the base work to perfection and I am sure he will please you fans—so far as any umpire can.

Owner Harry Dupuy of the Indians plastered Jimmy Flagg and Hank Doty with a hundred plunk fine each and added an indefinate suspension to let them think it over which just about serves them right. From the dope I gathered at Waco neither tried to keep in condition and have been a source of trouble otherwise. Cliff Hill drew the can also and will now probably burn up some barnyard league.

Harry Dupuy is a real sportsman and its a safe bet that he will have a winner at Waco before many moons and he has started in the right direction to strengthen the club but he has a long, hard road ahead of him now to get the Indians up in the race.

To start things off right Dupuy has secured pitchers Gossett and Houser from Little Rock and Lefty Thomas from the Dallas Steers and other new additions will follow soon.

Royster, the Gusher first sacker, has secured seven hits in the last two games. Keep your eyes on this boy. Bechtol will probably be in the line up today in left field. Come out and watch this fellow wham the old apple.

GERMANY MAKES FIRST OFFER OF PEACE

Offer Includes Adoption Of Hughes International Commission Plan Suggested Several Months Ago

BERLIN, May 2.—Germany made the first actual offer for a solution of the Ruhr difficulties in a note to be dispatched to the allies today. Under the proposal announced officially here, Germany would pay the basic sum of thirty billion gold marks as reparations due the allies under the treaty of Versailles. If France accepts, Germany would expect the evacuation of the Ruhr valley and a resumption of the previous system of payments.

The German note, a copy of which will also be dispatched to Washington, agrees if this proves unacceptable, an international commission, such as was suggested by Secretary Hughes several months ago, could be empowered to determine how much Germany is capable of paying.

New Pierian Memb's Elected At Austin

AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—Announcement has just been made of the election of three new members by the Pierian Literary Society for girls at the University of Texas. The society was founded in 1909, and in 1915 it was affiliated with the National Story Tellers' League of America. Since that date the activities of the society have been confind to the study and actual practice of story telling. Membership is based on scolastic averages, as well as interest in the short story. The new members are Dorothy Dunkley of Ennis, Esther Savage and Myrtle Mathison of Fredericksburg.

Gushers At Home For Flock of Nine

Returning home last night from their first road trip of the season the Gushers open their home stand of nine days with the Austin Rangers at Mckinney Street stadium this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The road trip just ended has been very successful and the club returns home one half game behind Marlin who is now leading the league. Out of the nine games scheduled for the trip the Gushers played seven winning four and losing three while one was a sixteen inning tie with Austin who opens here today and one game being rained out at Corsicana. The club returns home in splendid shape and fans are assured of seeing some great games during the coming series. The Gushers 16-0 defeat of Sherman Tuesday stamp them as one of the best scoring clubs in the circuit and a big crowd is expected to welcome them at the local park this afternoon.

Work of Bandits In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Kan., May 2.—Bandits held up and robbed two Missouri Pacific freight trains of an undetermined amount of valuable merchandise near Wolcott and Turner today, according to reports to police. The same gang was responsible for both hold ups ,police believe.

One report said at least twenty men in two motor cars, took part in the two robberies. Police said they understood at least six box cars were emptied of their contents.

According to A. R. Sutton, in charge of brakemen on one of the freight trains, he encountered the robbers at Wolcott while the train was slowing down to pass through the station.

Twenty men, armed with shotguns and rifles, covered the crew. The bandits then proceded leisurely with the looting of six box cars, he said. After emptying the contents into motor trucks, they disappeared.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—Three bandits held up Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Adelson in their apartments at a fashionable hotel here today and fled with $10,000 in jewelry. The robbers bound their victims to chairs while they ransacked the rooms. Adelson is a prominent local jeweler.

Alleged Clara, Not Having Hammer Uses Fists in Fight With Reporter To Prevent Being Snapped by Cam'ra

TECUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 2.—The woman held here as Clara Phillips, Los Angeles "hammer slayer" and her woman companion succeeded in besting the photographer and a jail guard in a hand-to-hand movie fight over a camera.

The photographer had gone to jail to take the woman's picture. She steadfastly refused to permit this, but he snapped the shutter anyway, and despite the presence of the guard the woman hurled herself upon him in an effort to destroy the plate.

Her companion, Mrs. R. M. Young, came to her assistance and together they subdued the reported and guard.

The fight for the camera lasted about five minutes, beginning in the bedroom in which the prisoners are confined and ending severals yards down the corridor toward the street entrance.

The woman displayed great pugilistic talents and an actual genius for fighting. They were so determined the reporter badly needed the assistance of the guard.

This was the first incident digressing from the usual sullen reception which the woman believed the slayer of Mrs. Alberta Meadows has given newspapermen who called upon her.

California detectives were expected to arrive tonight or tomorrow morning and until their arrival the chief of police has forbidden the prisoners—Mrs. Jesse Carson, Jesse Carson, and Mrs. R. M. Young—to see any guests.

FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL MEETS IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—The tenth annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council convenes here today for a three day meeting to discuss plans for taking care of the country's rapidly expanding export trade.

The first session of the council will be called to order at 2:30 today by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation. Addresses of welcome by the acting Mayor of New Orleans and Governor John M. Parker will follow, after which reports on European conditions generally will be heard.

Child Believed Tool Of Crooks

HOUSTON, Texas, May 2.—A child trained in the ways of the underworld, is believed by local police to be working as the tool of a gang of crooks here.

Recently a store was robbed. A hole had been cut through the ceiling from the floor above. The hole was too small for even a small man or woman to enter.

A rope had been used to lower someone into the store who in turn tied various articles of merchandise to the rope which was then drawn up and the articles removed. The presence of a number of cigar stubbs indicated that several men had taken a hand in the robbery.

No clues as to the identity of members of the robber band were ever found.

Coeur de Lion Commandery, Knights Templar accepted the petitions of four alst night and set next Friday night, May 4th for work in the Red Cross degree, meeting to be called to order at 7:30 and all members and candidates are requested to be on time. Visitors are always welcome.—W. R. Storey, E. C.

There will be a called meeting of Springfild Lodge No. 74, A. F. and A. M. tonight for work in degrees. Visitors are always welcome.—M. B. Webb W. M.

Governor Sends Message Urging Establishment Of Parks And Camping Places

AUSTIN, May 2.—Governor Neff, in a spceial message to the Legislature, urged the creation of a State parks committee for the purpose of establishing a system of parks and camping places throughout the State.

The chief duty of the committee, to be composed of six members who are to serve without compensation, would be solicitation of land in tracts large or small to be converted into public parks.

The activities of the Senate yesterday, in session for the first full day since Thursday due to the junketing trip through oil fields, included final passage of Senate eleemosynary appropriation bill and House judiciary appropriation bill with provisions of Senate bill substituted in the latter. The Senate also reported favorably the Doyle bill to buy more land for A. & M. College.

The House passed finally House bill making it felony to carry arms while violating liquor laws and House bill appropriating $6,000,000 for support of public scholos for two years. The lower body also reported favorably bill defining insect pests.

The House recommitteed three bills yesterday. They were: Bill levying tax on billboards; making it duty of assessors to discover names of owners of unrendered property and bill taking fees for collecting delinquent taxes out of maximum salary.

The lower house killed Harris bill limiting expenditures for free textbooks. The House also adopted resolution for calling of absentees to attend sessions, and struck out all but enacting clause and emergency clause of Smith delinquent tax bill.

Cotton Merchants Confer In Dallas

DALLAS, Texas, May 2.—Representatives of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics will confer with Dallas cotton merchants, buyers, sellers and others interested in the cotton industry at a meeting here tomorrow, called by George S. Williams, president of the Dallas Cotton Exchange.

The Cotton Standards Act, enacted by the last congress will be the principal matter for discussion, it has been indicated.

This act stipulates that all cotton sold, both foreign and domestic must be sold under description of and equal to American standards as regards grade and staple, and attaches a heavy penalty for cotton sold otherwise. This act has caused persons familiar with the proposed workings of the act a great deal of concern, according to Williams.

AUTO PLUNGES IN RIVER

CHICAGO, May 2.—Three persons were believed to have drowned when an automobile plunged off the Michigan avenue boulevard link bridge into the Chicago River shortly after midnight, according to police reports.

Three men who saw the plunge said they thought three persons were in the car. Immediately afterward a driver's glove and two auto cushions were found floating on the surface.

June 15th Will Be Last Day For Bringing Booze across 3-Mile Line

WASHINGTON, May 2.—June 15 was tentatively decided on as deadline for ships bringing liquor as "sea stores" across the three mile limit into American territorial waters. At a conference today this date was agreed on by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Moses and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair. It was submitted to Secretary Mellon for his O. K. If Mellon approves it regulations will be issued June 1st, effective June 15th.

Non-Stop Transcontinental Flight Starts from Roosevelt Field Today

MITCHELL, N. Y., May 2.—Final preparations for the proposed non-stop transcontinental flight of the monoplane T-2 were completed early today. Lieutenants John A. MacReady and Oakley Kelly left at 5 a. m. for Roosevelt Field, whence they will start at 11 a. m. The weather was ideal.

San Angelo Sheepmen Sell 450,000 Pounds of Wool at 55 Cents Pound

SAN ANGELO, Texas, May 2.—Sutton county sheepman yesterday sold 450,000 pounds of long 12-months wool at 55c per pound, a new high record in Texas this season by 2½ cents. The top price in 1922 was 49⅞ cents per pounds. A large amount of 8-months wool was sold in Crockett county yesterday at 48 cents, three cents higher than the season's previous high mark, according to reports here.

New Publication Out In Rio Grande Section of Texas

AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—"The Citrus Industry in the Lower Rio Grande Valley," a bulletin prepared by J. M. DelCurto, of the State Department of Agriculture is now ready for distribution, it has been announced.

The bulletin is of an instructive nature and is filled with scenes from the valley section.

The topography; climatological data for the years 1912-22; types of soil and average mechanical analysis of the soils; a chart showing the comparative precipitation and temperatures of Brownsville, Texas, San Diego, California and Miami, Florida,and irrigation facilities are all included in the bulletin.

Classification of fruits and amounts of shipments are also contained in the bulletin.

Buck Wheeler, one of the best right handers in the loop, held the Steers to six hits and two runs, while his fellow Spudders got five two-baggers, a home run and eleven singles, netting twelve tallies, off of Mitchell and Appleton.

AMERICAN LEADING IN GOLF

SANDWICH, England, May 2.—Robert A. Gardner, captain of the American Walker Cup team of amateur golfers, led in the first round of the St. George's challenge cup play here today.

Gardner turned in a 75 for the first 18 holes, three above par for the course.

Miss Emmajean Smith has returned from a few doys visit in Sherman.

State Trops Called Upon To Rescue Holly Rollers From Mob Of Nearly 1,000 In New Jersey

BOUND BROOK, N. J., May 2.—State troopers early today rescued 100 members of the Holy Rollers from a mob of nearly 1000 which surrounded the order's church here after breaking up a mass meeting. Alleged "klan" activities and remarks by a speaker at the meeting favoring the Ku Klux Klan precipitated the outbreak.

Two Holy Rollers were arrested on assault charges brought by Bound Brook citizens following a free-for-all fight in the church which a crowd surrounded and stoned the building, destroyed automobiles belonging to Holy Rollers imprisoned within, and talked loudly of lynching.

State troops were telephoned for and prevented injury to the two Holy Rollers taken prisoner and eventually succeeded in persuading the crowd to disperse.

A leader of the Holy Rollers who attempted to address the mob from a second story window after outsiders had withdrawn from the church and surrounded it, was struck in the forehead and knocked unconscious.

The crowd, unable to force an entrance into the "Pillar of Fire", went for a score of automobiles parked outside and wrecked these.

As the night lengthened, the throng dwindled until at 3 o'clock in the morning the State troopers, aided by local police, were able to back motor trucks up to the church doors and effect a rescue of the entire Holy Roller contingent, carting them off under armed guard to Zarephath, the order's headquarters.

First Woman Hanged in Canada In Twenty-four Years Dies on Scaffold

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, Alberta, May 2.—The first woman condemned to be hanged in Canada in twenty-four years, prepared herself for death here today.

At 8 o'clock this morning Mrs. Florence Lassandra, of Coleman, Alberta, and Emil Picariello were to be hanged on a double scaffold for the murder last November of Constable Lawson during a fight between alleged rum runners and Canadian officers at Crow's Nest Pass, Alberta.

Mrs. Lassandra, appealing to save her life, repudiated a confession which she said Picarillo persuaded her to make on the ground that no woman would be condemned to death. The woman and the man are not related, despite reports to the contrary.

Northwestern University Freshman Was Killed By Hazers, Is The Opinion Chicago Chief Of Police and Physicians

CHICAGO, May 2.—Leighton Mount Northwestern University freshman, was killed during inter-class hazing and the body placed in lime in a Lake Michigan pier, Police Chief Charles W. Leggett of Evanston, and physicians, declared today.

Mount disappeared after a "class fight" among university students in 1921. The skeleton was found by a small boy playing about the pier Monday night.

Doctors George Tyson and Joseph Springer, the latter a coroner's physician, declared examination shows that a chemical was placed over the body before it was hidden, to prevent an early discovery.

All class rivalry contests were banned at the university today as a sweeping probe into youn Mount's death got under way. Leggett announced that evry student wh opa ticipated in the sophomore-freshman "rush" of 1921, will be summoned for questioning.

Leggett believes that Mount was accidentally drowned by rival classmen who ducked freshmen in the lake and that his tormentors, fearing the consequences, secreted the body and probably visited the hiding place several times afterward to apply fresh treatments of lime.

Finding of the body created a greater sensation than it would otherwise, because of the fact that stories had been circulated that Mount disappeared on his own account.

Chicago police, aiding in the probe, searched for a nurse girl who told them when Mount disappeared that she had received a letter from the boy telling her "good bye."

A report that rumors were circulated two days before the police discovery of the body ,that "Mount had ben found." was also investigated.

An initial score or more of students were quizzed today. Liggett says he especially wants to talk to one young man who claimed to have seen Mount alive some time after the class rush.

Coroner Wolf, Evanston, who started an extended inquest, called upon university officials for a complete list of all freshmen and sophomores in the institution in 1921.

Mrs. J. L. Mount, mother of the dead boy, was the tragic figure in the case today. Since the youth's disappearance she has ignored reports that Leighton ran away or took his own life, and spent every cent she could afford for private detectives.

"I have always said I would be happier to know Leighton was dead than to have the suffering over the possibility that he might be out wandering friendless, alone, possibly hurt.

"But now that I know, my sorrow is just beginning. If only the university officials had helped the search when Leighton disappeared, by now I would have the dull sorrow that twenty months of obedience to God's will brings.

"For Leighon I am glad. He is happy. He is well. He was prepared morally and mentally to die."

Mrs. Mount was spurred in her search by stories authorities appeared to credit that Mount may have run away from home or committed suicide. As the latter dropped their probe she demanded that the name of her boy be cleared.

Two Possible Exceptions To Bone Dry Edict May Be Booze Consigned To Diplomats And Medicinal Purposes

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A declaration for rigid enforcement of the Supreme Court liquor decision in American territorial waters was awaited from the Treasure Department, as Secretary Mellon, Assistant Secretary Moses and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair met to put finishing touches on a program of policy ordered drafted by the Cabinet yesterday.

Such a decision was forecast in a statement by Attorney General Daugherty, who said that within thirty days the Government would be "vigorously enforcing" the laws as construed by the Supreme Court. Every agency at his command, Daugherty said, would be used in enforcing the law without partiality or discrimination.

Two possible exceptions to bone dr enforcement were, however, considered possible. They were:

1. Liquor consigned for Washington diplomats, which the State Department has announced as unaffected by the Supreme Court decision.

2. Stores of medical liquors on foreign ships required by the laws from the country under whose flag a vessel

NORMA TALMADGE PLAYS "WITHIN THE LAW"

Norma Talmadge's screen version of Bayard Vellier's "Within the Law" the most successful play in stage history, is the First National feature production de luxe that begins a 3-day engagement at the National Theater today.

The picture, which was made under the direction of Frank Lloyd, is described as being by far the most dramatic thing of its kind Miss Talmadge has yet done for the screen. Surrounded by a cast of unusual distinction, she portrays the stellar role of Mary Turner, made famous on the stage by Jane Cowl.

This part gives Miss Talmadge an extraordinary chance to demonstrate her exceptional ability as an emotional actress.

The heroine is a shop girl who is sent to prison for a theft she did not commit. In demanding that she get the limit, Edward Gilder, department store owner, explains that he wants to make an example of Mary. On her release, vowing vengeance, she joins a gang of blackmailers on condition that she operate only "within the law" Her specialty is breach of promise suits How she takes advantage of an opportunity that presents itself when she meets Dick Gilder, son of her arch enemy, becomes involved in an extraordinary romance and a police frame-up, squares herself with the world and finally finds true happiness, is unfolded on the screen.

APPALLING DIVORCE EVIL

(Denison Herald)

A recent edition of a big daiy carried head lines across the paper stating that there were more divorces granted than marriage licenses issued. This is no new thing. For years a study of the records shows that the number of divorces obtained has been greater than the number of marriages. The fact is an appalling bit of history in the making. It has within its sinister consequences some thing far more appalling than the mere separation of man and wife.

The social and moral disaster is going to leave its baneful tendencies to the next generation. Loose marriage ties cannot fail of the most harmful consequences upon young men and women who have been watching such procedure and actually living in elbow's touch with broken vows. "Vice is a monster of such frightful mien, that, to be hated, needs only to be seen; but seen too oft," is pitied. then embraced. There is a deeper reason for the frequency of divorce than the immediate quarrel that precipitates it. Back of the marriage vow is a flippant estimate of the solemn compact between the man and the woman. The keeping of vows thus estimated would be impossible.

The reckless disregard of marriage vows is due to reckless making of marraige vows. Everywhere young people rush into the matrimonial venture without due consideration of its responsibilities, without serious estimates of what is expected or required of each other. The modern sex craze has lowered the value of marital ties and plundered them of their sanctities. Marriage is often a matter of mere passion instead of a lofty compact between two spiritual beings. Imagined affinities as God-given blessings are mistaken for real mate-making qualifications. Young people become dazed with the glamor of marriage without thought of the inevitable sacrifice of individual freedom necessary in every instance.

Once into the bond, and coming into daily contact with the essential restrictions of the contact, disappointment and then friction follow. Nothing requires a more thoughtful and forward-looking meditation than the contract made at the altar between man and woman. The backward look comes too late. Questions of mutual sacrifice, interchangeable submission to wish and will, blending of natures, congeniality under the stress of home duties, comforting attentions during illness, compatibility of temper and temperament, the complete surrender of all others for the one, the abandonment of many social forms of individual freedom, the solemn binding force of a most sacred contract, similarity of tastes for real, social pleasures, business ideals and joint effort in making a living and enjoying it together, the moral phases of the two-fold copartnership, the ability and necessity to be forbearing, yielding, forgiving and self-effacing—these and numerous other consideration cannot escape the premarriage thought of any young man or woman who expects to make a success of the union. There may be instances where divorce is justified, but this should not become the excuse for looseness in marital relationships. No civilization can survive if the family organization breaks down, and nothing surely can break it down more rapidly or more tragically than ill-advised marriage and its almost certain consequence of divorce.

ANCIENT STONE GEARS DUG UP IN CALIFORNIA

SANTA MONICA, Cal., May 2.—In a recent excavation made near here, workmen found what apparently are ancient stone gears, probably used hundred of years ago by Indians who inhabited this section of the country.

The gears were about two feet apart, and were uncovered fifteen feet below the surface. One was about four inches in diameter and had several teeth neatly cut and smoothed.

Among the theories held is that the wheels were part of a machine invented by the Indians for grinding corn. Another of the gears had eleven teeth. The stone is two inches thick.

The teeth on both gears bore evidence of hard usage, some of them being considerably worn down.

THANKS AMERICAN

MOSCOW.—In a special address President Kalinin expresses his thanks to the American workmen who were former Russian citizens for a gift of one thousand five hundred dollars presented to him by the Russian-American Industrial Corporation for the Famine Children fund. The Commissary of health also expressed his thanks for medicines and nourishing foodstuffs to the value of five thousand dollars sent by the New York Children Relief Committee.

Miss Frances Bass left Tuesday afternoon for Lynchburg, Va., to attend May Day and Commencement exercises of her alma mater, Randolph Macon Woman's College. Miss Bass will probably be away until the middle of June, and enroute home will visit with school friends in Virginia and Tennessee.

The Mexia Salesmanship club held a live meeting at th luncheon hour today, at the Hurdleston Banquet Hall. A good attendance and a splendid program featured the occasion.

The Nowlin Post of the American Legion is planning another athletic event, which promises to be the best yet offered by the organization.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Osawatomie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there chanced to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui." NC-151

PERSONALITY OF OWNERS DRAWS FANS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 2.—Baseball club owners, by tradition and practice, are supposed to be only club owners. It is their function to talk gate receipts all summer and wag their tongues all winetr in political battles designed to keep the game in print.

It is seldom that the personality of a magnate injects itself so into the team that it is an asset and a drawing card. The personality of Charley Comiskey was always an asset for the Chicago White Sox until the "Old Roman" became disgusted with star chamber politics and practically retired.

Star players are the biggest factors, of course, in drawing crowds into the parks. Millions have been packed into stands to see Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, George Sisler, Rogers Hornsby and Christy Mathewson, and the same million would have paid in their money even if it did go into the hands of an intensely unpopular club owner.

Babe Ruth, beyond all doubt, is the biggest asset the New York Yanks possess and, for that matter, he is baseball's greatest drawing card. The ability of the great Swat King to draw in customers on the road has meant almost as much prosperity to the other American League clubs as it has to the Yanks, considering the difference in the size of the parks.

The personality of the Yankee team is not confined, however, to Ruth. The popularity of Colonel T. L. Huston and Jacob Ruppert, the two club owners, has been no small factor in raising the Yanks up to the biggest thing in baseball.

In the comment that was aroused over the dedication of the new Yankee stadium, the finest sport structure in the world, when 74,200 fans saw the game and 15,000 were turned away, it was remarked on all sides:

"Those colonels surely deserve it."

No figures are available, but nothing can be recalled to refute the statement that no such support and commendation have been volunteered by the general run of fans to any other club owners.

In addition to being citizens and sportsmen of the very highest type, the two colonels are big chance takers and if anything appeals to the New Yorker, it is a game gambler who plays big stakes on a tough bet and gets away with it.

Ball and Bat

BY HECK

The present race for the rag in the T. A. loop presents much food for thought among you 33rd degree fans who delve deep into the percentage columns and figure the chances the home team has of getting at least part of the rag if not all of it. Marlin who leads today as the new shift of all clubs takes place cannot hardly better their standing with their coming three games with Sherman. The same dope applies to Sherman who are tied with the Gushers. I figure that the Red Sox will win two of the three games with Marlin which will give McIver's crew a percentage of .643 and Marlin .625. The Gushers should and probably will win two of three from Austin which will give them a tie percentage with Sherman for first place. Here the Gumbo Busters appear upon the scent and by winning three straight from the downtrodden Waco Indians will be but one game behind with a percentage of .571 and there is no reason why the Busters should not clean up on the Dupuy-Falk-seldom-if-ever-wins, but if they don't then Harvey Grubb may as well get a new ball club. Waco who now sleeps gently in the cool air of the cellar is due to stay there for some time to come and there is no use in expecteing Dupuy to find a ball club very soon these days. Austin who opens with the Gushers today seem to have just hit their stride and may be bad medicine for us now that they have just mopped up the Gumbo Busters three straight gams and all real games too. However, the Gushers should take two of the three games and thusly be all set to climb back on top before they hit the road again. Marlin however goes right back to picking grapes with Waco and that will force the Gusehrs to keep in high gear during their series with the Corsicana crowd who follow Austin here next Saturday for thre games. The Gushers should take two out of three from Corsicana while Marlin is taking three from Waco which will give the Gushers a 11-6 count for a percentage of .647. Marlin will probably leave Waco with a 13-6 count and a percentage of .684. Now what I have been trying to dope for you is what will be about the relative positions of Marlin and Mexia when the Bathers hit here next Tuesday, May 8-9-10 for three games and there you have it if some club don't cross us up and spoil all this figuring. By taking two from Marlin the Gushers will have a 13-7 count for .650 to the Bathers 14-8 count for .636 when they hit the road again. In summing it all up the Gushers must win six of their coming nine games, Marlin must win five of their nine, six of which are on the road. Sherman has the best part of the schedule at Waco an Austin while the Gushers, Gumbo Busters and Bathers are cutting each others throat and it would not surprise me to see the Red Sox win seven or eight of their next nine games and if they do they will sure be hard babies to catch by June 1. If the does goes as I dope it above I want you to say "Heck, you durn fool, have a cigar." I'll take it. But if this dope goes wrong you can jump on Joe Stubenrauch, Harry Cooksten or any of those guys who are always doping things wrong.

SPORTLIGHTS

Hello. Second place, where you been all this time?

Poor old Waco Indians. Nine miles in the cellar and if they go much lower they'll be in the sewer.

Just one half a game from the top, but a hard roe to hoe ahead of ous.

I figure manager Johnson to start Roy Davis against us today and the Gushers should beat him pronto.

The Rangers seem to have a combination outfield-pitching staff with Johnson and Whitworth doing double duty. Can't have much hitting kick with that kind of a combination.

The balance of the Ranger club stacks up along wth the balance of the clubs about the loop.

Thanks, Rangers for trimming the Gumbo Busters three straight. I'm sure glad that they are easy for some club.

The Gushers gave Sherman an awful trimming when they did get going. That 16-0 game Tuesday is one for the record book and will perhaps not be equalled this season—unless the Gushers do it.

We may get Bob Crow flung at us today and if so you will see a ball game. Bob pitched in the West Texas in 1920 and when I was out there and looked good then. He should be hard to beat by now.

I have a huch that Meeks will draw the assignment from Hub today, or it may be Carl Hill. Either will do and win or lose, the game will be pitched according to Hoyle.

When you figger it out there are but 5½ games between Waco's cellar and Marlin's lead, which is close anyway you want to take it.

President Davidson stated in Waco last Sunday that he expected to be here today or Thursday to make his first official visit to Mexia, and I look for him to assign Dock Spencer to umpire the coming series.

I watched Dock in action last Sunady and liked the way he handled the game. One thing sure and that is he is "King" of the whole kaboodle when he is on the field. Dock was good on balls and strikes Sunday and handled the base work to perfection and I am sure he will please you fans—so far as any umpire can.

Owner Harry Dupuy of the Indians plastered Jimmy Flagg and Hank Doty with a hundred plunk fine each and added an indefinate suspension to let them think it over which just about serves them right. From the dope I gathered at Waco neither tried to keep in condition and have been a source of trouble otherwise. Cliff Hill drew the can also and will now probably burn up some barnyard league.

Harry Dupuy is a real sportsman and its a safe bet that he will have a winner at Waco before many moons and he has started in the right direction to strengthen the club but he has a long, hard road ahead of him now to get the Indians up in the race.

To start things off right Dupuy has secured pitchers Gossett and Houser from Little Rock and Lefty Thomas from the Dallas Steers and other new additions will follow soon.

Royster, the Gusher first sacker, has seeured seven hits in the last two games. Keep your eyes on this boy.

Bechtol will probably be in the line up today in left field. Come out and watch this fellow wham the old apple.
